U.S. Senator Michael Bennet to Host Transnational Immigration, Trade & Security Debate
Expert panel representing the U.S. and Canada discuss cross-border immigration reform and the implications for transnational trade and border security

Denver, CO – Tuesday, February 18 at 7:00 PM MT, Colorado U.S. Senator Michael Bennet will host a forum on immigration, trade, and security in partnership with the Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (CELL).

Featured panelists include former U.S. Representative David Dreier (R-CA), Consul General of Canada Marcy Grossman, and Chairwoman of the Center for Equal Opportunity Linda Chavez. Former Colorado Governor Bill Ritter will moderate.

More than 700 are expected to attend the discussion, which will cover, among other things, U.S. immigration policy and the prospects for passing a comprehensive immigration reform bill in 2014. As part of the Senate’s “Gang of 8,” Bennet helped write a bipartisan bill to fix the broken immigration system that passed the Senate last June.

The debate can be viewed live online at www.bennet.senate.gov/thecell
