

MEDIA ADVISORY

Contact: Trp. J. Lewis
CSP Public Affairs
303-239-4583

WHAT: After major renovations and improvements, the Colorado Law Enforcement Memorial (CLEM) will hold a ribbon-cutting ceremony to showcase a memorial befitting those who have given their lives in the line of duty while serving Colorado. During the ceremony, a piece of steel recovered from the World Trade Center after 9/11 will also be unveiled as part of the memorial. The steel, donated by the Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (CELL), is a tribute to all those lost on 9/11, including the many police officers and first responders.

WHERE: The Colorado Law Enforcement Memorial
Housed at the Colorado State Patrol Academy
15055 S. Golden Rd, Golden, 80401

WHEN: Friday, April 21, 10:00 AM

SPEAKERS: LTC. Barry Bratt, Colorado State Patrol, CLEM Committee
Chief Montgomery, Colorado Association of Chiefs of Police
Mr. Larry Mizel, Chairman and CEO, MDC/Richmond American Homes Foundation and Founder, Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (CELL)

“The Colorado Law Enforcement Memorial allows us to remember and to pay tribute to those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in law enforcement service,” said Larry Mizel, chairman and CEO, MDC/Richmond American Homes Foundation and CELL founder. “These brave and selfless men and women will never be forgotten. Their sacrifice will never be taken for granted. And their courage will forever serve as an inspiration to us all.”

OTHER ATTENDEES: Major donors, CLEM committee members, family members of fallen officers, Officers of various Colorado Law Enforcement agencies

Members of the media are invited to attend and film the proceedings. Any members of the public that wish to attend are invited as well.

